All Saints Students Receive DAR Contest Awards

On Saturday, Ms. Roser and several All Saints students were honored at the Dearborn Historical Museum by the Daughters of the American Revolution Dearborn - Colonel Joshua Howard Chapter for their participation in the DAR Stamp/Poster contest depicting the 100th Anniversary of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution. A number of the students had their artwork sent on to the State and Regional divisions. Students from All Saints present on Saturday to receive honors included:

7th grader Charlotte Pianowski
6th graders Tolu Ogundaisi, Caroline LaPointe, and Catherine Shore
5th graders Brynn Reichert, Paige Michalak, and Kaylee Ketelhut
4th grader Mary DiFranco
3rd grader Noah Rigoni
2nd grader Charlotte Garant
1st graders Kathryn Votruba and Ian Madden

Classroom Happenings

Although it's 2020, All Saints 7th graders flipped their calendars back 100 years to spend the morning in the Roaring '20s--the 1920s. The students had a humdinger of a time celebrating the era, dressed in period clothing and enjoying tasty treats and soda pop. The students also tried their skill at re-creating artwork from the Harlem Renaissance, and even learned how to play games of the time--including black jack and poker!

Step right up! Our 2nd graders enjoyed a morning of games and sweet treats on Friday as they celebrated the culmination of studying their unit about money with a Money Carnival. Over the past few weeks, students received three "quarters" per day as a reward for positive behavior. At the carnival, they were able to use their "money" to purchase food and prizes and play games. The items' prices were often odd numbers, resulting in the students' need to count their change carefully! Thanks to our parent volunteers who assisted student cashiers at the checkout stands.
